Allergy Warning

This product is contraindicated in an individual with a history of hypersensitivity to any of its ingredients.

Memoractiv contains an ingredient derived from soy (phosphatidylserine isolate). Phosphatidylserine contains no soy protein. There are no other soy-based ingredients in Memoractiv.

Pregnancy Warning

If pregnant, consult your health-care practitioner before using this product.

Interactions

Because of the blood-thinning effects of Vinpocetine and Ginkgo, Memoractiv should be used with caution or avoided in an individual on anticoagulant therapy or prior to surgery.
